

KIGALI CONVENTION CENTER

In 2007, three Rwandan corporate investors pooled resources to build the real estate complex. They formed a company called Ultimate Concept Limited, to develop and own the centre. The centre has four major components (a) a 5-star hotel, Radisson Blu Hotel Kigali, with 292 rooms on six floors (b) conference center with seating capacity of 2,600 (c) Kigali Information Technology Park, with 32,200 square metres (346,598 sq ft) of rentable office and retail space and (d) a museum on the bottom floor of the IT office park.[1][2] Construction began in 2009[1] and was completed in 2016.[6]

Year

2008

Application

Office buildings

Interventions

Wall and floor application

Location

Rwanda Africa Rwanda