RAK Ceramics has unveiled an exciting new chapter in its partnership endeavors with the announcement of its major sponsorship deal with United Arab Emirates football club, Emirates Club. This news follows the club's recent signing of Spanish football icon Andres Iniesta.

In the upcoming ADNOC UAE Pro League, RAK Ceramics will play a vital role in strengthening Emirates Club's global presence while highlighting Iniesta's remarkable career. The midfielder's arrival brings new excitement to a league that is already seeing a surge in international talent.

At the Emirates Club's last match, Iniesta and his teammates proudly wore RAK Ceramics-branded jerseys. The next match is scheduled for 25 August and promises to be an exciting showdown.

As RAK Ceramics solidifies this partnership and Emirates Club gains momentum with Iniesta, the world watches the fusion of sport and corporate collaboration.
